NEWS NOTES.

The Niagara Hotel at Buffalo, N. Y., made an assignment.

The widow of R. J. White, of Madison, is dead, aged 73.

Thomas Sidney Cooper, a noted painter, died in England.

George Scott, who was wounded in a fight at Owsley county, is dead.

Georgia Miller, a negro cocaine fiend, was frozen to death at Paducah.

There are about 900,000 more women than men in the German Empire.

Charles M. Schwab was entertained at luncheon by the Lord Mayor of London.

In Fleming county Thomas Bailey shot and killed Alex. Lemasters over an old grudge.

Fire at Wapella, Ill., wiped out the business section, causing a loss of $200,000 to $300,000.

Opie Read, author and playwright, has signed a contract to write a play of Georgia planter life.

Stewart Johnston, oldest son of Maj. P. P. Johnston, of Lexington, died in Montana of pneumonia.

B. F. Clune, a New York policeman, committed suicide rather than face charges preferred against him.

Hiram Miller, a crook, was killed in a fight between robbers and citizens at Cedar Hill, Breathitt county.

E. Burton, Master Mechanic of the Seaboard Air-line at Fernandina, Fla., was killed by a discharged employee.

Geo. Sutton, a Wichita, Kan. grocer, who was to have been married next Sunday, was found dead in his store.

Four members of Wm. Robertson's family perished in a fire which destroyed their home at Pawpaw, W. Va.

A jury at Henderson set aside the will of Nathan Gibson, a wealthy farmer, which disinherited his only child.

At a meeting of the Louisville bar a resolution in favor of the bill providing six circuit judges in Jefferson county was adopted.

The Rock Island car works at Horace, Kas., burned. Two lives were lost and the property, valued at $250,000, was destroyed.

A receiver was appointed at New York, N. J., for the Automobile Company of America, a corporation capitalized at $5,000,000.

United Irish Societies of Chicago, protested a protest against Miss Alice Roosevelt attending the coronation of King Edward.

John Kohler, a 17-year-old boy, committed suicide near Decatur, Ill., on being arrested for a forgery which he had committed through ignorance.

Not in 10 years have mumps been so prevalent in Louisville as they are now. The disease has attacked adults as indiscriminately as it has younger people.

At Topeka, Kansas, John Kay beat his wife to death with a flat iron because she was about to secure a divorce. He then made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide.

The condition of Mrs. Soffel, who aided in the escape of the Biddies, is improving. Her husband has retained counsel for her, but says he never wants to see her again.

In Allen county John Pendergrass and Mrs. Mary Little engaged in a fight. Pendergrass threw stones and Mrs. Little used a shotgun, and both are dangerously wounded.

Gen. Egan, it is said, has been challenged to a duel. As the challenged party he will probably choose as the weapons cans of embalmed beef, each to smell until one or the other succumbs.—Owensboro Messenger.

The volume of business at the Louisville postoffice during the past year is a good indication of the prosperity of the city. The figures show an increase of more than $44,000 over 1900. Postmaster Baker will get an increase in salary of $1,000.

A fire which originated in a street railway power house at Paterson, N. J., just after midnight, burned fiercely until Sunday afternoon. In all, 25 blocks were burned, comprising a part of the business center and a portion of the residence section. The loss is estimated at $10,000,000. The city hall, all the National banks, five churches and all the principal business houses and public buildings were in the burned district. No lives were lost, but a number of persons were injured.

DANVILLE AND VICINITY.

Farris & Denny's big combination sale of fancy harness and thoroughbred horses held Thursday and Friday was largely attended by purchasers from all sections of the country. The bidding was spirited and the sales very satisfactory to both buyers and sellers. The splendid success of the sale is a matter of congratulation to the promoters; 135 horses were sold at auction besides a big number which changed hands privately.

A big wreck occurred at the Danville depot Sunday morning about 7 o'clock. No. 96, a through freight and double header, had been delayed on account of the lateness of a passenger train. Just as it was backing onto the main track to start North, No. 32, another Northbound double header, came roaring in from Junction City and before anything could be done, smashed into the rear end of No. 96, practically demolishing the engine on No. 32 and the caboose and the three rear cars on No. 96 and fatally wounding the fireman on No. 32, Jack Potter. The remainder of the crew jumped and escaped injury. The three demolished cars were loaded with tombstones, eggs and pig iron, respectively.

The McDowell building on Second street which, on account of its recent sale and historic past, has been the occasion of a number of lengthy newspaper articles, had a narrow escape from destruction early Saturday morning. It is a frame building and is used as a Negro Hotel. A small blaze started in the kitchen from a defective flue and the alarm was sounded and promptly responded to by both fire companies. The place was full of dusky guests who had not been aroused and when two powerful streams of frigid water began pouring through the windows into the rooms, the occupants thought an Arctic cyclone had broken loose. The excellent work of the fire fighters extinguished the flames before serious damage had been done.

The fine buggy horse, stolen from Jerry Caldwell's stable last October, was discovered near Troy, O., Thursday, having been located through a confession of Samuel Patrick, who had been operating as horse thief, preacher and matrimonial candidate in Ohio and Kentucky. The two horses stolen by him in Ohio and sold to Ben Ransdall, of this county, and Enoch Burton, of Mercer, were claimed by two residents of Troy and returned to them. At Williamstown, it is said, Patrick had fallen in love with a rich farmer's daughter and was preparing to marry her when arrested by detectives from the "Buckeye State." The report comes that he has been sentenced to 10 years imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary for horse stealing in that Commonwealth. Altogether, he stole about a half dozen horses in the Blue Grass, besides a number of buggies and by the time he answers to all of the charges that will be preferred by Kentuckians, his time on earth will be short.

SOMETHING THAT WILL DO YOU GOOD.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup.—Camden (S. C.) Messenger. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

The State Board of prison commissioners has issued a statement denying some rumors of a discrepancy between their report and that of the auditor. They say the rumored discrepancy arises from a difference in the dates of the two reports.

A mule said to be 45 years old died at Flemingsburg. This is the first case on record where a mule has died of old age.

Thos. Henry Clay, of Bourbon, has sold to Green & Lyman, of Montgomery, 1,000 lambs at 5c straight, middle of June delivery.

Came to my place Sunday, a young, dark bay horse. Owner can get him by paying for keep and this notice. A. C. Carman, Stanford.

J. F. Cook shipped to his farm on Dix river a car-load of Indiana Southdown sheep. Mr. S. R. Cook says they are as fine a lot as he ever saw.

W. S. Drye & Co. sold a saddle mare at the Farris & Denny sale at Danville for $350. C. C. Carpenter, also of the West End, sold a Chester Dare mare for $175.

C. C. Carpenter, the well-known Hustonville, horseman, is stopping at Rice's Hotel. He returned last week from Augusta, Kansas, where he fed 200 cattle for the Western market. The bunch was sold at $5.85 and $5.95 and averaged 1,450 pounds.—Advocate.

Mrs. Dr. McDonald, of Danville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kincaid. John Francis and wife, of Danville, have been with the family of Mr. Joseph Francis. They were accompanied home by Miss Tommie Francis, Miss Allie Tribble, of Richmond, has been visiting in this vicinity. Lewis Herndon came up from Central University Friday.

The franchise for the Lancaster water works will be sold on the 1st Saturday in March. Judge J. S. Robinson and Capt. Wm. Herndon constitute the committee to receive bids. The water to be used is 2½ miles from the city, at Dix river, and in the greatest abundance. Surveys were made as long as two years ago, and an engineer was here from St. Louis to complete all arrangements, but the matter has been given little consideration until quite recently. The question again is arousing public interest and the committee are anxiously awaiting communications from Eastern contractors.

There were three interments in the Lancaster Cemetery on Friday. The remains of Mr. Nixon Perkins, which reached here from San Antonio, Texas, on Wednesday night. The burial of Col. John Henderson, who had reached his 84th year, and leaves one daughter, Miss Alice Henderson, teacher of the Garrard Graded School. The funeral of J. M. Higginbotham was conducted at the Christian church by Elder R. H. Elliott, of Lexington, assisted by Elder A. R. Moore. An unusually large concourse of people were present at the services, the Garrard Graded School attending in a body, and the bank officials acted as pall bearers; all the business houses of the city were closed, out of respect to the late president of the Citizens Bank; and the floral designs were very beautiful and were ordered from city florists. The tribute paid the memory of J. M. Higginbotham by Rev. Elliott was both touching and appropriate. As a public-spirited citizen, as a financier and business man, and the highest of all, as a helpful friend and unassuming Christian, his character was impressively delineated.

GOT RID OF HIS RHEUMATISM.

"During the winter of 1898 I was so lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around.

I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year." — R. H. Wheeler, Northwood, N. Y. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

Ten men and a chambermaid are dead, one man missing, eight are dangerously injured and 10 or more had narrow escapes, and are frost bitten as the result of the burning of the Empire Hotel in St. Louis. Most of the dead were burned to death or suffocated in their rooms.

When you lack energy, do not relish your food, feel dull and stupid after eating, all you need is a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They will make you feel like a new man and give you an appetite like a bear. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

W. P. WALTON.

Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 2d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

THE Paducah News Democrat seems to have taken this fellow's measure with a very reliable rule, when it says of him: "McKenzie Moss is a weakling who will be permitted by the republican majority in Congress to serve a portion of the term for which John Rhea was elected and draw Rhea's salary. He is no more fit to be a Congressman than any cigarette-smoking, counter-jumping dude in Bowling Green. He will never rise in his seat to say 'Mr. Speaker.' He will, however, probably be able to find his way to the sergeant at arms' office to draw his per diem, mileage and stationery. At the end of the term he will never be heard of again."

OVER 1,400 invitations have been issued to newspapers throughout the country for the dinner to be tendered the American press by the New York Staats Zeitung in honor of Prince Henry. At the request of the authorities in Washington, Mayor Low, of New York, will present the prince the freedom of the city upon his arrival, Feb. 22, instead of Feb. 25, as originally intended. Up to the hour of going to press the INTERIOR JOURNAL had not received its invitation, but of course the trouble is with the mails.

PARTIAL statistics of defalcation and embezzlement in the United States and Canada during 1901, show that about $7,800,000 went astray in this criminal fashion. Considering the temptations that beset custodians of other people's money and the little punishment they receive for their wrong doing, the wonder is that the percentage of loss should be slight as compared with the enormous aggregate of the country's financial transactions.

Governor Taft of the Philippines gets $20,000 and each of his four assistants $15,000, while there are 26 officials who draw from $4,000 to $7,500 a year. In all there are 4,606 employees, not quite half of whom are Americans. The salary roll runs to over $3,000,000, of which over two-thirds goes to the Americans. Great extravagance is the principal feature of the effort to govern the Filipinos.

THE Lexington City Council has set aside $1,000 to be used in entertaining the members of the Legislature upon the occasion of their visit to day. This is $7 apiece for the Solons and some big heads and sick stomachs may be expected in Frankfort to-morrow.

THE republican postmaster at Manchester, Tenn., has resigned, but he did it rather than be fired. He is under arrest, charged with despoiling a young woman and it is to be hoped that his will be a step from the postoffice to the gallows.

NUMEROUS lawyers, who no doubt want to gain some reputation in one way or another, have volunteered to defend Mrs. Soffel, who assisted the Biddle's to escape from the Pittsburgh jail.

THE Harrodsburg Democrat has more newsy, crisp locals than any paper we know of. Messrs. John Grimes and Charlie Terhune are making that publication a model of a home paper.

THE Legislature is half over and only one bill has been passed by both houses, although over 600 have been introduced. It is likely a cool thousand bills will be offered this session.

IF you want to get rich quick get on the New York City police force. An other "cop" in that city has bought an apartment house in a swell part of town, paying $160,000 for it.

POLITICAL.

Twelve native born Kentuckians have been governors of Missouri.

Two hundred and eighty clerks were dismissed from the Census Bureau at Washington Saturday.

Gov. Beckham approved the joint resolution favoring the election of United States Senators by popular vote.

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill, embracing the sum of over $25,000,000, was passed.

John D. Evans, of Morehead, will be appointed a member of the State board of Equalization to succeed Z. Taylor Young, resigned.

The lower House of Congress has passed the bill establishing a Federal court at Cynthiana. Its passage by the Senate is expected.

Philippe Governor Taft told the Senate committee at Washington how hard a time he has managing to live on $20,000 a year at Manila.

In his testimony before the Senate Philippine Committee, Gov. Taft advocated the purchase by Congress of the lands owned by the friars, saying nothing gave the Philippines so much trouble as the friars. He said he would favor a tariff reduction of 50 per cent and thought the concession would have a good political effect.

Beyond the killing, after a sharp fight in the Kentucky House, of the bill to abolish the State Board of Equalization, little was done in the Legislature yesterday.

Former Secretary of the Treasury Gage is said to have accepted the presidency of a New York trust company at a salary of $100,000 annually.

The Philippine tariff bill will continue to hold the floor in the Senate this week, but there are no prospects of its immediate passage, there being still many Senators who desire to be heard.

The bill before the Kentucky Legislature to prevent the stealing of electricity is attracting attention in Louisville, where owners of electrical plants claim the thefts have grown to enormous proportions.

The democrats of Grant county held a mass meeting at Williamstown and adopted resolutions protesting against the proposed transfer of that county from the 6th to the 9th Congressional district. A committee of 20 was appointed to go to Frankfort to oppose the change.

Representative Klair, of Lexington, has offered an act to authorize city clerks of second class cities to select a daily newspaper to be known as the official newspaper. All proceedings of boards of council and other city printing to be published therein at advertising rates.

The Fairbanks amendment to the Urgent Deficiency bill, adopted by the Senate last week, covers the big Kentucky war claim, and if the House concurs in the amendment its payment will probably be accomplished within six months. The claim amounts to about $900,000.

A PROHIBITION Alliance, with 30 members, was organized at Moreland last week.

MARSHAL JONES has 245 days in fines to work on the streets and his gang will begin at once cleaning the town up generally.

THE store-room to be occupied by Hays & Levi is being greatly improved by paper and paint. They will be here about the 20th.

"JASON JOSKINS" COMPANY, which played here to a small house, some two weeks ago, "went to the wall" at Lawrenceburg.

THERE will be 22 contestants, including one lady, in the old fiddlers' contest at Turnersville to-night. Better go if you don't want to miss a good time.

DR. W. C. ROBERTS announces that Central University, Danville, has $10,000 of the $25,000 needed to secure the gift of $25,000 offered on those terms by a graduate.

W. H. MUELLER, the jeweler, is offering great bargains in gold filled and solid gold watches, etc., for the next 30 days. It will pay you to see him. His loss will be your gain.

WILL PROTEST—A delegation of Rockcastle citizens passed down to Frankfort soon to protest against taking their county out of this district and putting it in the 11th.

FINED—Allen Helm and Pierce Stewart were fined $5 each for jumping on moving trains. Arthur Dutton caught it for $13 for disorderly conduct. All parties are colored.

OLD COIN—Mr. C. H. Carter, of the Milledgeville section, has an Australian copper made in 1730. He prizes it so highly he is afraid to carry it in his pocket, thinking that he might lose it or be robbed.

RESIDENCE SOLD—The Central Kentucky Real Estate Exchange & Title Co. sold to Cleo Reynolds, for his daughter, Mrs. A. P. Dunn, Saturday, the Crenshaw cottage on Logan Avenue for $1,600. Mrs. Dunn and family will move to it in a short while.

BIG GOOSE.—W. A. Pettus, of the Milledgeville section, killed a wild goose the other day that weighed 10 pounds and measured five feet and six inches from tip to tip of wings and three feet from its head to tip of its tail. This is a good sign that winter is broken, Mr. Pettus thinks.

CHICKEN THIEF SHOT.—Abe Lester, living near Perryville, returned home late at night and saw a man near his house. He fired at him and brought him to the ground. The invader was recognized as Nelson Lewis and he is thought to be fatally wounded. This should be a warning to Lincoln county thieves.

WE have a number of accounts that while old, are not barred by limitation, that will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection March 1. A statement will be sent to each person who owes, giving him one more chance to pay without being sued. Save costs by settling before the above date. E. C. Walton.

A YOUNG farmer remarked the other day, "I see this fellow, More Anon, writes for your paper sometimes. He must do lots of writing, for I have seen his name signed to pieces in nearly every paper I have ever read. Who the devil is he, any way?" He left believing Mr. More Anon was a resident of Danville.

IT seems to us that our people are making a mistake in not trying harder to get free rural mail delivery in this county. It would be the greatest convenience imaginable and the cost would be comparatively nothing. Think over the matter and if you are for free delivery call at W. S. Burch's law office and sign a paper to that effect.

HON. M. F. NORTH's bill authorizing fiscal courts to provide and care for tools to be used on dirt and gravel roads, was reported favorably by the Committee on Internal Improvements and ordered to its second reading. His bill to prohibit the manufacture and sale of cigarettes was also favorably reported and advanced to its second reading.

ALLEN—Mrs. Allen, wife of Elder Frank W. Allen, of Chillicothe, Mo., died Saturday of pneumonia, after a few days' illness. Her husband was pastor of the Christian church here some two years ago and many remember Mrs. Allen as a most lovable woman. Besides the husband, a son and daughter are left to mourn this good wife and mother.

KELLY—Capt. Higgins Kelly, formerly a prominent surveyor and farmer of the Hanging Fork section of Lincoln county, died at Lakeland Asylum last Sunday and his remains were brought to McCormick's church cemetery for interment. He was one of nature's noblemen in true courage, inflexible honor and undeviating truthfulness.—Somerset Journal. We knew Mr. Kelly was ill but the above is the first intimation we had of his death.

Go to Miss Sacray's for the latest styles in photos.

I WILL deliver millet hay anywhere in town at 40 cents per hundred. J. H. Boone.

FOR RENT.—Either of my two residences on West Main Street. W. P. Walton.

Go to Beazley & Hays' for nice bed-room sets and furniture of all kinds. Prices to suit purchaser.

A. P. STEWART's smoke-house was robbed of three sides of meat the other night. The scamps also took one of his buggy wheels off and appropriated it.

WALLACE WALTER will build a store-room on the lot he recently bought on Logan Avenue and open a stock of general merchandise in the Spring.

FOR SALE—If you want to buy the best store house and the best stock of goods in the best little town in Kentucky, address James Frye, Hustonville, Ky.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL and the Twice-a-Week Courier Journal for $1.50 a year. Our paper and Bryan's Commoner for $1.75. Take them all three for $2.25.

THE auction of Severance & Sons Saturday proved a great drawing card for the ladies, and Mr. Will Severance showed himself to be an auctioneer of a high order. Another auction will be held beginning at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

W. H. TRAYLOR has bought the interest of the late E. Bremer in the Carpenter House Saloon and will run it with Sid Myers in charge. Mrs. Bremer will continue the Carpenter House as a hotel. Mr. Bremer left an estate worth about $5,000.

CORRECTION.—Mr. J. J. Moore, of Boyle, asks us to say that his daughter, who was killed in an accident at the Danville toll gate several years ago, was thrown from her buggy instead of jumping, as we stated in our last issue in giving a report of the trial of the suit for damages that followed her death.

JAMES FRYE, of Hustonville, H. H. Singleton, of Waynesburg, Dr. J. W. Acton, of Kingsville, and Wallace Walter, also of Kingsville, were some of those who left good orders for printing at this office yesterday. It was a splendid court day for the "cheapest and the best," notwithstanding the raw day.

IN the county court yesterday the wills of Erick M. Bremer and Mrs. Salie J. Ball were probated. The former makes his widow executrix and leaves his entire estate to her. Mrs. Ball's will names her son, Thomas C. Ball, executor and divides her property equally among her children. Pedro Green having failed to qualify as constable of the Waynesburg district, the court appointed J. T. Brown and W. O. Watts as his deputy.

MT. VERNON.—A big crowd attended Mt. Vernon court yesterday and several visiting attorneys were present, including Hons. R. C. Warren and F. F. Bobbitt, of this county. Judge Morrow arrived at 11 o'clock from Williamsburg and soon had court in session. His charge to the grand jury was, as it usually is, a forcible one, and as clear as could be made. The dock is a very light one and all of the work will be completed this week. Four newspaper men and a street fakir were on hand and they worked the crowd for all it was worth.

THE handsome country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pence, Sr., was a picture of gaiety and beauty Friday evening, when their charming daughter, Miss Jennie Pence, entertained in honor of her handsome guest, Miss Wells Clarkson, of Charleston, Mo., at a "Progressive Peanut Party." The house was artistically decorated and brilliantly illuminated for the occasion. There were some 25 or more young ladies and gentlemen present. Seven tables were beautifully arranged, with a stack of peanuts upon each one, and those who could pick up the most peanuts from a stack, without moving the others, were awarded the prizes. Six or seven tied for the prizes, each picking up 11; then it narrowed down between them as to who would win the honors, Misses Annie Pence winning first prize, a handsome couch pillow, and Stella Rupley, second prize, the booby, a doll made out of peanuts. Refreshments were then served elegantly in several courses, consisting of ices, cakes, salted peanuts, etc. Misses Pence and Clarkson were the recipients of many compliments on the charming manner in which they entertained, and every one felt good at having had the pleasure of being present. The following young ladies and gentlemen were there: Misses Ila Holdam, Anna Cooke, Stella Rupley, Alvira and Susan VanArsdale, Virginia Warren, Nancy Brent Newland, Cell Crooke, Katherine Baughman, Lucille Cooper, Annie Pence, Frances Spoonamore; Messrs. F. S. McClary, Thomas D. Newland, Jr., Harry Higgins, George B. Fills, Sam Mathew, John Meneefee, Howard Coleman, G. W. Browne, Jack Rout, L. R. Hughes, Robert Coffey, Lawrence VanArsdale and Dr. R. A. Jones.

A LENGTHY letter from Rev. Geo. O. Barnes on John Alexander Dowie and his peculiar religion will appear in our Friday's issue.

THE council will meet to-night to decide whether we shall have all night service of street lights. We hope to report next issue that we will.

NEWS comes that there was a wholesale fight between Negroes in Danville yesterday evening, but nobody was killed. A number of heads were badly bruised, however.

THE city council has presented Chief of Police R. G. Jones with a handsome badge, hat and a billy of the latest make. The clever officer deserves all the good things he gets.

AUCTION again Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Ladies especially invited. Laces, Hamburgs, Towels, Dress Goods, etc., at your own price. Severance & Sons, opposite courthouse.

A MAD dog has done considerable damage in the Kriger section during the last week. Mr. Charles Gangloff tells us. A number of dogs and hogs have been bitten. All efforts to kill the mad canine have failed.

THE second semi annual meeting of the Eighth District Educational Association will be a big event. Music Hall at Harrodsburg has been decided upon as the place for holding the convention, which will last two days, April 11 and 12. Some very eminent educators of the district are on the program for addresses, and all, without exception, have agreed to respond. Prof. M. O. Winfrey, of this place, is secretary of the association.

TWO of our best and sturdiest farmers engaged in a fight here yesterday. They were Capt. Ben Powell and Mr. John B. Foster and the former was slightly cut in the side by the latter, while Mr. Foster sustained a small cut on his chin. The trouble came up over a dog and as there will be a trial, we will give particulars after it occurs.

We deeply regret, as do their many other friends, the occurrence and hope their differences will be satisfactorily adjusted at once.

A man in the northern part of the State is raising chickens and obtaining money under false pretenses. He made his hen coop air tight and put curtains at the windows. At noon he draws the curtain making the hen house perfectly dark, so that the biddies go to roost, and at one o'clock he raises the curtain letting the light in. The hens think another day has dawned and proceed to lay another egg. It's a mean trick, equal to the man who put green spectacles on his horse and then fattened it on straw. The green spectacles made the horse think it was hay.
